BELL-FIGHTS, BANQUETS AND REVOLUTION.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

Montevideo, Jan. 27

As there was no box on Sunday, and as the truth is I felt so tired after the bell-fight, and with my preparations for the banquet, I did not write. The fight was a "draw," and the "corde" was not exciting, and the only feature worth recording was the premeditated preparation by Ministers Bayona and Zeballos of a watch and chain and a pearl necklace for the handsome Mazzanti.

This aristocratic work was some faint enthusiasm by sacrificing a bull to the Republic. He did it neatly enough, but the bull was standing stock still at the moment of the charge, and the Minister Barro's coat-pocket. It is a great shame to allow this useless slaughter, and just imagine the Ministers devoting the result of the sacrifice to the Republic, the Barro's, Nitoria. It was a religious ceremony in her day. It is a barbarous one to-day.

The Barro was depicted to invite Maz-zanti to the banquet, and he had been longly expected to go to the ball, and upward the tressor, and Minister Bayona, perhaps because he himself has taken the bull by the horns in the Mission, was quite friendly to him. I had time to see the Minister calmly submit his white watch and the massive gold chain from his holding place, pull out the watch

and the massive gold chain

from the hanging, and the Minister Mazzanti $80 for the watch. The

In spite of all the pressure the Lord Mayor has been obliged to make, the Municipal Treasury was decided to pay the loan, and it looks very much as if the honorable commissionaires intend different nations on the value of land and the amount of taxation. The committee's estimate will probably be submitted to day in a few alterations.

The Sociedad Puerto de San Nicolas de los Rios, S. R. H. & Co. £8,700 was paid at the bank at the port of that name for $300,000.

The Municipal merchants know that "bonos", or subscription to the Post Office rates will probably be the bonos.

The profits of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Aires for 1889 amounted to £100,000.

The Municipal Treasury has paid Mr. J. A. Sanchez 300,000 dollar account of his salary for the year 1889 to the city.

At Mendoza, that bank is in a process of being sold, and the profits of the bank of 700,000 mps are going to be distributed among the shareholders in proportion to their shares. A dividend of 12.50 is distributed to each shareholder.

10 mps is expected to reserve fund.
